Pride Of Baltimore II Is Coming To Annapolis

PRIDE OF BALTIMORE II is sailing into Annapolis this month and is offering guests a variety of ways to experience this traditional sailing vessel. PRIDE II is fresh off her 2008 Great Lakes Tour which took the ship to ports in all five of the Great Lakes, as well as ports along the Northern Atlantic Coast.

For the past couple of weeks PRIDE II has been busy making appearances in ports throughout the Chesapeake Bay, and also taking top honors in the Great Chesapeake Bay Schooner Race.

PRIDE II will be making her first visit this weekend, arriving on Friday afternoon and can be found at the National Sailing Hall of Fame Dock. On Saturdays and Sundays, the ship will open for visitors.

Lights on the Bay

Anne Arundel Medical Center's annual holiday light show, "Lights on the Bay," will open to the public Nov. 21 and continue through Jan. 4, 2009 at Sandy Point State Park, 1100 E. College Parkway. The show features almost 70 animated and stationary displays, three lighted tunnels, and perimeter and architectural lighting along a two mile drive through the park. A number of displays are unique to the area, such as the Colonial Village modeled after historic Annapolis and the display of Midshipman tossing their hats in the air. This year the show has two new lighting themes: a North Pole Penguin Village and an Under the Sea Adventure. Each night children can participate in a scavenger hunt by looking for items in the show and answering display-related questions. A drawing for prizes will be held, and 3-D glasses can be purchased for $3 to view some displays in three dimensions. Admission is $14 per car, $28 per minibus or trolley, and $50 for a coach bus. Coupons, available at Graul's Markets, Anne Arundel County Public Libraries, and in the Annapolis Pennysaver, offer a $4 discount on weekdays. All proceeds benefit the medical center. For more information, call 443-481-3161 beginning Nov. 7.

Grand Illumination at Homestead Gardens

A family tradition for years, the Homestead Gardens Grand Illumination transforms a third of a mile of Central Avenue in Davidsonville into a spectacular exhibition of hundreds of thousands of Christmas lights to the music of The Annapolis Chorale. This year, Homestead Gardens has converted its entire display into LED lights, which use 10% of the electricity of conventional Christmas lights yet are much brighter!
